

California's 22nd Mission Project Rubric

Score	Evidence
4	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> *Shows ADVANCED understanding of CA Missions, including the following: 1) the Mission's purpose was to convert Native Americans to Catholicism, to utilize the natural resources in the area to make goods for the other Missions and for Spain, and to protect Spanish territory in North America from others. *Utilizes most concepts taught regarding keynote presentations. *Demonstrates scholarly work. *Utilized time in class wisely throughout project.
3	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> *Shows PROFICIENT understanding of CA Missions, including the following: 1) the Mission's purpose was to convert Native Americans to Catholicism, to utilize the natural resources in the area to make goods for the other Missions and for Spain, and to protect Spanish territory in North America from others. *Utilizes many concepts taught regarding keynote presentations. *Demonstrates mostly scholarly work. *Utilized most of the time in class wisely throughout project.
2	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> *Shows SOME understanding of CA Missions, including the following: 1) the Mission's purpose was to convert Native Americans to Catholicism, to utilize the natural resources in the area to make goods for the other Missions and for Spain, and to protect Spanish territory in North America from others. *Utilizes some concepts taught regarding keynote presentations. *Demonstrates little scholarly work. *Did not utilize all time in class wisely throughout project.
1	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> *Shows little or no understanding of CA Missions, including the following: 1) the Mission's purpose was to convert Native Americans to Catholicism, to utilize the natural resources in the area to make goods for the other Missions and for Spain, and to protect Spanish territory in North America from others. *Utilizes little or none of the concepts taught regarding keynote presentations. *Demonstrates little to no scholarly work. *Did not utilize time in class wisely throughout project.